Lectures & Events

Bookshop Event Chicago Architecture Biennial London Launch

Wednesday 24 May, 6.30

AA Bookshop

Johnston Marklee and the Chicago Architecture Biennial invite you to the London launch of the 2017 Chicago Architecture Biennial, presented by artistic directors Sharon Johnston and Mark Lee. RSVP victoria.kung@suttonpr.com by 22 May.

Book Launch and Signing OFFICE, volumes 1, 2 & 3 Kersten Geers and David Van Severen

Thursday 25 May, 6.30

AA Bookshop

The Brussels-based OFFICE Kersten Geers David Van Severen brings architecture back to the essentials: with a limited set of basic rules, a framework is created for playing out life in all its complexity. Models, drawings and perspectives created by the architects are displayed together with works of art that are related to the spirit and language of the practice.

Join us for a drinks reception with David Van Severen and Kersten Geers to celebrate the launch of these new volumes of work.

Launch Price £100 (RRP £120)

Members' Screening The Forgotten Space

Thursday 25 May, 7.00

AA Cinema

The Forgotten Space follows container cargo aboard ships, barges, trains and trucks, listening to workers, engineers, planners, politicians, and those marginalised by the global transport system. We visit displaced farmers and villagers in Holland and Belgium, underpaid truck drivers in Los Angeles, seafarers aboard mega-ships shuttling between Asia and Europe, and factory workers in China, whose low wages are the fragile key to the whole puzzle. And in Bilbao, we discover the most sophisticated expression of the belief that the maritime economy, and the sea itself, are somehow obsolete.

Only open to AA Students and Members.

Exhibitions

Exhibitions are open until Saturday 27 May, Monday to Friday 10.00–7.00, Saturday 10.00–5.00

OFFICE KGDVS Everything Architecture

AA Gallery

Every production of Office KGDVS can be considered a project in itself. Models, drawings and perspectives populate the AA Gallery as individual objects, together with works of art. In this field of objects, sculptures are considered companions en route to architectural production; paintings and photographs enforce or break different perspectives and a search for dialogue.

The Riverbed

Ben Murphy

Front Members' Room

These photographs, made during extended trips over a ten-year period to a remote mountainous area of southeastern Spain, show how international neo-nomadic countercultures are represented, reinforced and maintained through the customised trucks, vans, coaches and self-made dwellings they inhabit. Reflecting on values of home and freedom, and the inevitable paradoxes, compromises and entanglements inherent in rejecting the dominant system, the work asks what it means to live an alternative life on the margins of the mainstream.

Reyner Banham: America

British architectural historian Peter Reyner Banham was not only a vivid writer, but also a compulsive snapshot photographer who described himself as an 'observational historian.' Banham repeatedly visited and recorded buildings, cities and landscapes with one of his many cameras and several Ektachrome and Kodachrome films. This exhibition gives an insight into his America to which he moved in 1976 to join the University of New York in Buffalo. Industrial landscapes, car lots, ordinary houses, a view of the road; these photographs are only a selection of his hundreds of 35mm colour slides housed at the AA Photo Library that reveal his distinct photographic body of work.
