

GRADUATE OPEN DAY
Friday 22nd January 2010

9.30 am

Breakfast

Dining Room, Basement 36 Bedford Square

Staff will be on the door of No. 36 to welcome visitors.

10.00 am

Welcome and Introduction by Brett Steele (AA Director)

Claire Perry (Graduate School Admissions Co-ordinator) will outline the Admissions procedure and introduce Imogen Evans.

10.15am

Group Tours

Guided Tours of the school.

10.30am to 1.00pm

Programmes Presentation, Room BO1, Basement 16 Morwell St

Current and past students from each Graduate programme present and answer questions about their work and the course content. Claire Perry and Imogen Evans will be present to answer any Admissions queries.

1.00 pm – 2.00 pm

Lunch Break

Hot and cold lunches can be purchased from our dining room between 12.30 – 2pm.

2.00pm

Day Two of the Final Presentations of the Phase II students of the MArch DRL 08 Lecture Hall, 36 Bedford Square

The different teams present their project for about 25-30 minutes, after which the jurors give feedback. We regret we will not be able to reserve seats for you; seats are available on a first-come-first-served basis. Final presentations commence on Thursday 21st 10am, so if you are already in London you are welcome to attend the earlier session as well. The course directors of the DRL programme will not be free to talk with you during Final Presentations. Detailed information will be on your Events List provided on the day.

7.00pm

Tom Wiscombe

Extreme Integration

Tom Wiscombe is the founder of EMERGENT, platform for architectural experimentation dedicated to the transfer of techniques, logics, and sensibilities from science, technology, and computation into architecture. Their work is part of the permanent collections of the F.R.A.C. Centre Paris, MoMA San Francisco, and MoMA New York and has been exhibited in bienalles from London to Beijing to Schenzhen.

This lecture will follow on from the DRL Phase II Jury which takes place in the lecture hall during the day, seating is limited so please arrive at 6.45pm.

Lecture Hall, No.36 Bedford Square

www.aaschool.ac.uk/lectures