

Introduction Week 18–22 September Events List

General Information

Welcome to the AA!

This is the Events List – the weekly printed calendar of events at the AA, also accessible on the School's website aaschool.ac.uk. It will be emailed to you weekly during term-time, and printed copies can be found at Reception. Please refer to the Student Handbook and AA Rules and Regulations for further details about all aspects of the AA and download the AA School Live App.

If you are new to London, the first thing you should download is the London journey planner app CityMapper (citymapper.com/london) as well as the new version of London's first fully interactive Tube map Tubenav (tubenav.com). Also for information on events, gigs, bars, restaurants, club nights, film releases and much more get the Time Out app (timeout.com/london/time-out-london-mobile-apps) to keep you up to date.

AA Membership Card and Login Details

As a student of the AA, you automatically become part of an international community of AA Members. If you have no fees or essential documents outstanding, your AA Membership Card, email account and computer login details will be ready for you to collect from the Membership Desk at registration on Tuesday 19 September. Otherwise, if your registration is delayed for any reason, please collect these from the Admissions Office at 36 Bedford Square after you have completed your registration, anytime between 10am and 6.00 from Wednesday 20 September.

Your Membership Card functions as a door card to gain access to the various AA premises. It is also your library card and your printing and photocopy card, and a cash card for payments in the bar and materials shop. A cash-only top-up station is located in the stairwell behind the reception area in 36 Bedford Square, otherwise please top-up your account at topup.aaschool.ac.uk.

If you lose your card, a replacement can be purchased at aaschool.ac.uk/cards for a cost of £10, and any funds held on your lost card will be automatically transferred to your new card within 24 hours. Cards ordered online before 4.00 Monday to Friday will be ready for collection from AA Reception after 5.00 the same day. If you have any access or money problems with your card, or for any issues regarding your AA email account or login details please speak to staff in the Computer Room in the first instance.

Bank/Council Tax/ Reference Letters

If you need a reference letter, please see the appropriate Admissions Coordinator who has dealt with your application. Folders will be available in the Admissions office where you can fill out your details. Please be aware we cannot issue letters until you have completed registration on Tuesday 19 September and the letters will be available from the afternoon of Friday 22 September.

International Student Identity Cards

The cost of this card is included in the AA Student Forum fee. Once we have a comprehensive list of all the 2017-18 registered students we will place an order for the cards. They should be received by the end of October to collect from the Admissions office. A notice will appear in the Events List when the cards arrive.

Student Oyster Cards

You are entitled to a Student Oyster photocard, which gives you a 30 per cent discount on adult-rate Travelcards (it costs £20). Please visit photocard.tfl.gov.uk to register. When asked for your student ID number, enter the last five digits printed under your name on the front of your AA Membership card.

Healthcare

If you are an international student on a course of study for six months or more, you will qualify for NHS treatment from the beginning of your stay on the same basis as anyone who is ordinarily resident in the UK. Please see www.nhs.uk for further details. You will be able to sign up for the NHS system with the Gray's Inn Medical Practice, 77 Gray's Inn Road, London, WC1X 8TS on Registration Day.

Accommodation

Still looking for accommodation? The AA School enlists the services of the University of London House Services (ULHS) to help AA students find accommodation in London. Visit www.housing.lon.ac.uk for housing databases, renting advice, flatmate-finder notice boards and to read their Private Housing Guide. Please note they will be holding flatmate finder events on Friday 15 September and Monday 18 September between 3.00–6.00. To register for these events please visit their website. You can access their database by using your membership number which can be found on your offer letter.

In order to secure accommodation, some students may be asked to submit identity documents under the Right to Rent scheme. It is very important that you do not send your original documents to anyone via post. If documents are requested, you should take these to the landlord and have them checked and copied while you are present. For further information please see the UKVI website. If you need further advice, we recommend you contact University of London Housing Services on +44 (0)20 7862 8880.

For second-hand household items such as furniture try gumtree.com, Loot (published Tuesday to Friday, and Sunday), which also has a property section, loot.com and ebay.co.uk, or the weekly magazine Exchange and Mart. For free items, try freecycle.org.

Insurance

Students are advised to insure their computers and other equipment as the AA's insurance does not cover personal items in case of theft or an accident. For information about insurance you may find www.moneysupermarket.com helpful.

RIBA Student Membership

Students on the Part 1 and Part 2 courses (First to Fifth year) are eligible for free RIBA student membership. By becoming a student member, you will be joining a network of over 41,000 members worldwide. For a full list of benefits and to register go to www.architecture.com

Loans

The following information is subject to current legislation.

Students joining the five-year ARB/RIBA undergraduate course

New AA students from the UK and EU are eligible for a Tuition Fee Loan (non-income assessed). For up-to-date information, visit www.gov.uk/student-finance. Bear in mind that the AA is a private institution and not all the information on the site is relevant. New students transferring from other British schools must inform their LEA/SLC of changed circumstances. Student loans for living expenses are available to UK students, or those who have lived in the UK for three years prior to embarking on higher education. Please note all students are required to register at the AA first in order for the SLC payment to come through.

Postgraduate Course Designation

We are delighted to announce that the AA has secured specific course designation for postgraduate master's courses which allows eligible applicants to the AA Graduate School who will register in the 2017-18 academic year, to access student funding in accordance with the Education (Postgraduate Master's Degree Loans) Regulations 2016. For full details please visit www.gov.uk/postgraduate-loan.

European Union Fee Contributions

EU students are eligible to receive an EU contribution towards fees for the five-year ARB/RIBA undergraduate architectural course, provided they have been resident in an EU country for at least three years prior to their course of study. For further information, please see www.gov.uk/student-finance

Assistantships

A number of assistantships are offered to eligible full-time registered students who are experiencing financial hardship. Students are able to work up to ten hours per week, providing assistance with certain administrative, exhibitions, or maintenance functions. New eligible students wishing to apply can speak to departments directly or visit the website to see the opportunities available aaschool.ac.uk/apply/jobs/student-assistantships.php

Student Forum

The Student Form will be hosting events throughout Introduction Week to provide all new students with the opportunity to meet each other and have some fun. Please see posters which will be up around the school for full event details.

AA Bookshop and AA Publications

Situated at 32 Bedford Square, the AA Bookshop is one of London's leading specialist architecture bookshop. AA Publications are featured alongside a comprehensive range of titles from international publishers. The bookshop has special offers and events for members. Their friendly, helpful staff will endeavour to assist you with any related titles that you may be looking for.

As an AA Member, you are entitled to 20 per cent discount on AA Publications and a monthly selection of featured titles in the AA Bookshop and complimentary copies of AA Files (mailed twice annually) and the AA Book: Projects Review (published annually in June to accompany the end-of-year exhibition).

Annual Lecture Series

Foundation Myths: Charles Holland

Thursday 21 September, 6.30

Lecture Hall

The term 'foundation myths' refers both to the personal stories we tell ourselves when we design as well as wider narratives about the origins of architecture and the role of historical sources and precedent. In this lecture, Charles Holland will use the origin and foundation myths of architecture to discuss a number of recent projects.

Book Launch

Builders, Housewives and the Construction of Modern Athens

Friday 22 September, 6.30

AA Bookshop

This book reassesses the explosive growth of postwar Athens through its most distinctive building type: the polykatoikia, drawing on popular media as well as urban and regional planning theory, cultural studies and anthropology to examine the evolution of this phenomenon and consider its role in building an equitable and sustainable twenty-first-century city.

Join us for a drinks reception with Ioanna Theodoropoulou to celebrate the launch of this new publication.
