Arquitectura Viva is a monthly publication that covers architectural production alongside arts and culture essays. With a journalistic flair, the magazine includes reviews of new books; house, interior and exterior of the month, and op-eds.

AV Monographs focuses on architectural practices or themes, curating a list of relevant projects accompanied by images, drawings, and critical essays.

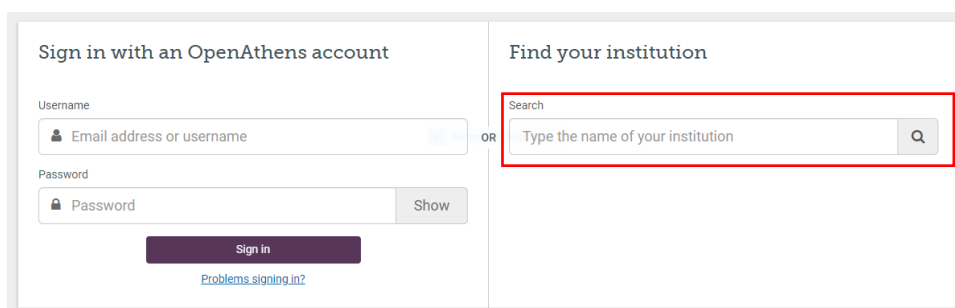

AV Proyectos is a bimonthly publication catered to architecture students and early career professionals. Showcasing architectural competitions and recently built projects, it provides comprehensive technical details.
